in association with SGL

Good afternoon and a warm welcome to John Duncan, the Directors, Players and Supporters of high flying Chesterfield who are currently sitting in second place with 45 points. What a tight division it is proving to be from Chesterfield down to Fulham in twelfth place there are only 10 points between them.

Carlisle look like they will be promoted automatically leaving 11 sides battling for the other two places. With competition like this you can hardly afford to lose a game. The team that can hit form now will be the ones to come through, as happened last year with Chester, and Shrewsbury coming strong in the last part of the season.

We have come from nowhere to get into this chasing pack in recent weeks and we have to play many of these teams in the near future. It is important that we take points off the top teams if we are going to be there at the death which we seemed unable to do last year. We've started well against Carlisle and Mansfield in the last few weeks. Help us to keep it going by really getting behind the lads today.

Thanks for your support.

Gary

FROM THE SECRETARY

We look ahead to the forthcoming fixture at Northampton on Saturday 11 February. This game will be "all ticket" for North End Fans and these will go on sale to Season Ticket holders from 12.00 - 4.00pm on Sunday 5 February and due to the limited number of tickets available will be strictly ONE PER SEASON TICKET. The ticket office will re-open on Monday 6 February at 10.00am and will remain open throughout the Pontins League game against Barnsley. Any remaining tickets will go on sale from 10.00am on Wednesday 8 February.

Looking to the next game here at Deepdale on Saturday 18th February when North End play Top of the Table Carlisle in a game which we hope will live up to all its expectations.

The turnstiles opened last Saturday for the sale of tickets for this fixture and this proved to be very successful. There are still a number of vouchers that have not been redeemed and voucher holders will have until 1.00pm today and immediately after todays game to redeem them.

On the actual day of the game we would ask for your co-operation by going to the correct turnstiles for the Adults and Juveniles/Senior Citizens - signs will be displayed above the turnstiles and to enable a smooth flow of entry into the ground an early arrival would be greatly appreciated.

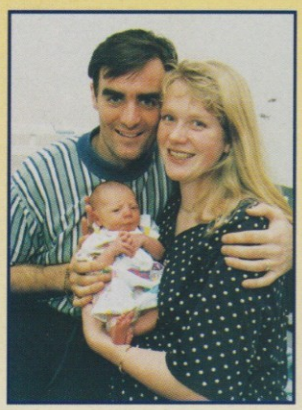
MIKE CONROY'S DOUBLE CELEBRATIONS



It was not a surprise that Mike Conroy scored one of North End's goals here at Deepdale, in our 3-0 victory over Rochdale on Boxing Day. The fact that Mike had hardly slept the night before was because he was celebrating the birth of his daughter Meaghan. Despite being expected to arrive on January 10th she was born at 4:08 am on Boxing Day weighing a healthy 6lb 10oz. Mike and his Australian wife Sarah are obviously delighted with their new arrival. I don't know anything about Preston North End so I wondered if you have any information about Preston that I could have. Could you please print my name in the programme as I would like someone to write to me with news about Graeme.
Love Laura.

Dear Sir
I am writing to ask you to print a note of thanks in a future programme to the supporter I met at your recent home game with Colchester United. As a supporter of Charlton Athletic I set off at midday with approx 100 other supporters for the long coach trip for the match against Burnley. You can imagine our disappointment on getting to Preston before hearing that the game had been called off. It was then decided to see if the Preston game was still on and I guess your stewards were quite shocked to see two coach loads of Charlton supporters pull into the car park. After a couple of drinks in the snooker club I was invited with some of my friends to stand in the Town End which we did and we were pleased to receive a warm welcome and a genuine feeling of sympathy at a long journey which ended without seeing our team play. Unfortunately I do not know the names of the people we stood with, but they know who they are, just to say that your supporters are a true credit to the proud name of Preston North End, and I wish you luck with your promotion campaign this season.

Yours faithfully

Good luck for the rest of the season!

AROUND DIVISION THREE

With Mike Payne

Carlisle, incredibly, passed the 60 point mark last weekend with their home draw against Fulham. They are so clear now that only a disastrous run on their part will give the others chance to catch them at the top of the table. If they don't lose more than eight more points they will beat Swindon's record points total for a season since three points for a win came in. That is 17 league games undefeated and although that Fulham game was not one of their better displays, they still managed a result. It sets everything up nicely for next week's epic clash here at Deepdale when it is quite possible that North End could regain the best crowd of the season title. Another long run came to an end with Scarborough's vital win at Northampton ending their weeks without victory. That result really does give the Yorkshire side some hope now as it drags the other clubs above them back into the fight. At least six clubs will be looking over their shoulders now. Scunthorpe's 4-1 win at Hartlepool pushed North End down a place and put United into a play off position. Doncaster also had an excellent result inflicting a rare home defeat on Torquay. (How come Torquay played but Exeter was called off?). I notice the Pools Panel got another result wrong last week by giving North End a draw at Exeter! Should have been an away win!

Poor old Hereford can do no right at the moment and their 2-0 defeat at Lincoln keeps them deep in trouble. Since Colchester lost their management team to Ipswich it would seem that they are struggling. Another home defeat, by Wigan this time, has put the brakes on their ambitions although they are still only three points short of the play offs.

What is best, games in hand or points in the bag? From North End's experience it is points in the bag, but I for one will be glad when all these outstanding games are played. Not one of the division's leading scorers added to their total last weekend with Reeves (Carlisle), Freeman (Barnet), Wilkinson (Mansfield) and Lightbourne (Walsall) still out in front.

Warren Joyce
scored on his debut
for Hull City

Quite a few ex North Enders have stolen some headlines since I last wrote for you. Matt Jackson scored Everton's winner in the cup last week and Warren Joyce scored on his debut for Hull where he is loan from Burnley. Ian Stevens scored for Shrewsbury against Oxford and Gary Swann scored the opening goal for Scarborough in that vital win at Northampton. There was an incredible comeback by Blackpool against Plymouth and Tony Ellis scored his first goal for a while and Ronnie Jepson scored his 16th goal of the season at Bournemouth. In Doncaster's win at Torquay Mickey Norbury came on as sub in the 61st minute and Rovers hit their winner in the 71st. And did you notice that Dundee United beat Motherwell 6-0 a couple of weeks ago? Well Kelham O'Hanlon was in goal for United and Steve Woods was involved with Motherwell ... on the subs bench! I bet he was relieved. And one other piece of news from Scotland, Wayne Foster is now playing for Partick Thistle. Surely he must be nearly 50 years old by now!?

HERE TODAY

Between the sticks

CHRIS MARPLES

Goalkeeper Chris is in his second spell at Saltergate. He originally joined Chesterfield, his hometown club, at the age of 19 after playing for Goole Town. He made 84 League appearances - and was involved in the Fourth Division Championship winning side of 1985 before moving to Stockport County (57 appearances). York City (138 appearances) and Scunthorpe United (on loan, 1 appearance). He returned to Chesterfield in December 1992 on a free transfer and up to the time of writing had added a further 57 full league games to his tally. Carried off injured a couple of weeks ago against Scunthorpe with a suspected broken ankle.

The vastly experienced JIM BROWN is expected to be on the bench this afternoon. The club's commercial manager provides cover when either of the two first choice goalkeepers are injured.

ANDY BEASLEY

Much travelled keeper who began his career at Luton as an apprentice. Andy's League debut was made at Mansfield in the 1984-85 season and he went on to spend a further 8 seasons at Field Mill. During that time the Sedgley born keeper had loan spells with Peterborough, Scarborough and Bristol Rovers. In July 1993 Andy joined Doncaster Rovers on a free transfer and made 37 League appearances in his one season at Belle Vue. Chesterfield snapped him up in August and he made his League debut for the Spireites versus Preston in November winning much acclaim Andy will be celebrating his 31st birthday tomorrow.

Leading from the back

JAMIE HEWITT

Experienced utility defender who has played in almost all first team matches so far this season. Jamie was born in Chesterfield and joined the Spireites from school. He made his League debut in the 1985-86 season and went on to make a total of 249 League appearances before a free transfer took him to Doncaster Rovers in August 1992. The 26 year old rejoined Chesterfield just over a year later and is now approaching his 300th full League appearance. Scored 3 goals so far this term including a brace in the 2-2 draw versus Rochdale.

LEE ROGERS

Doncaster born defender who was apprenticed at his hometown club Doncaster Rovers. Unable to break into the first team at Belle Vue, he went for a trial at Saltergate in the summer of 1986. He obviously impressed the management because he has been a first term regular ever since! The 28 year old is the longest serving member of the Chesterfield squad and has made over 320 senior appearances. Lee scored his one and only League goal at Lincoln City in April 1993.

DARREN CARR

Darren joined Chesterfield from Crewe in July 1993 for a £30,000 tribunal set fee after making over 100 League appearances for the Railwaymen. The 26 year old began his football career with his hometown Bristol Rovers before spending a couple of seasons at Sheffield United. He signed for Crewe in December 1990 for a £35,000 fee and soon established himself as a regular in the side. This season Darren has appeared consistently at centre-half.

NICKY LAW

Widely travelled and highly experienced central defender who has over 400 League games behind him for Barnsley, Blackpool, Plymouth, Notts County, Rotherham and presently Chesterfield. The 33 year old Club Captain started his career at Arsenal after being capped at Schoolboy level for England but with limited opportunities at Highbury he moved to Barnsley and has played regularly since. London born, Nicky is the reigning Supporters Club Player of the Year.

SEAN DYCHE

Sean, 23, was born in Kettering and joined

Nottingham Forest as an apprentice. Unable to break into the senior squad, he moved to Saltergate in February 1990 on a free transfer and soon became a regular in the starting line-up. He was named the club's Player of the Year in the 1991-92 season but the utility midfielder/full back found the next couple of seasons hampered by injury. He missed the first few months of this season but he returned in mid-October and has played in every match since.

PHIL ROBINSON

A signing earlier in the season from Huddersfield Town, Phil was snapped up to add experience to the middle of the park. He began his career with Aston Villa and made his League debut in the 1986-87 season. Wolverhampton Wanderers paid £5,000 for his services in July 1987 and he turned out to be a sound investment - he was an almost ever-present in his 2 years with the club (63 appearances) before a £67,500 transfer to Notts County. He made a further 65 appearances before his move to Huddersfield Town in September 1992. He made his debut for Chesterfield in December against Rochdale and has maintained his place in the starting line-up. He has scored 4 goals in 7 games to date.

TOM CURTIS

A young midfielder who is in his second season with the club after joining on a free transfer from Derby County in August 1993. He established himself in the Chesterfield side soon after signing and played in 42 senior matches last term, scoring 3 goals. Still only 21, great things are expected of this talented youngster.

In attack

TONY LORMOR

A 24 year old striker, was signed from Peterborough on the 23rd December 1994 on a free transfer.

KEVIN DAVIES

Just 17, Kevin is described as a tremendous prospect for the future. Born in Sheffield, Kevin has worked his way through the youth ranks at Saltergate, breaking into the first team last season making a huge impact in the 28 matches he appeared in. Kevin became the youngest ever player to appear in the League Cup last term when Chesterfield visited West Ham and he also scored a brace in the 4-0 thrashing of Northampton on the final day of last season. His talent has already been spotted at the highest level with Kevin being capped for England at Under-18 level earlier this season. He has missed only a handful of matches this term and has scored 7 to date.

MARK JULES..

A former Bradford City apprentice who was snapped up from Scarborough after a superb two goal showing against the Spireites in the final game of the 1992-93 season. Mark made 77 League appearances scoring 16 goals for Boro before Chesterfield paid £40,000 for his services in May 1993. The 23 year old is a wide attacking player but he was particularly impressive last season when he was switched to a man-marking full-back. Mark has regularly been involved in the squad this season.

ANDY MORRIS

Sheffield born forward who signed from Rotherham United, his only other permanent League club, in January 1988. He has appeared regularly in the first team ever since scoring an average of a goal every four matches. He also appeared for Exeter City on loan in the 1991-92 season and scored 2 goals in 4 appearances. Nicknamed Bruno, the 26 year old giant striker is said to have matured into a deceptively skilful player. Scored 4 goals this season in 15 full games.

PLAYER PROFILE

By Martin Breen

JOHN VAUGHAN

Age:- 30
Born:- 26.6.64, Isleworth. (London)
Height:- 5ft 10 in.
Weight:- 13st 01lbs.

Do you have a nickname at the club?

Just the obvious ones like "Vaughany". I used to get called "The Legend" at Cambridge, but I try to keep that quiet nowadays.

Who did you support as a lad?

No one really. I was always playing too often to watch anybody regularly. The local side was Brentford and I went there a couple of times, but I wasn't really a supporter.

How have you settled up North, having spent your entire career in the South?

O.K. I'm not a complete stranger to the North, because my wife is from Leeds. I quite like the area and I'm happy here.

How do you get on with Barry Richardson in terms of competition and so on?

I get on fine with Barry, no problem at all. Wherever I've been, I've always got on with the other goalkeepers. I think goalies show each other a lot of respect because they all know what it's like to play in such a specialist position. Goalkeepers at a club need to have friendly competition between each other though - it keeps everyone on their toes.

Do you have any say in which design of goalkeeper's shirt you wear for matches?

Yes, sort of. Barry tends to be a bit more flamboyant than me in that department. When we were at Hartlepool, a jazzy shirt had been left out for me. I was heard to ask what ever happened to plain old green and not long after, Steve White, the man at Footy came up with a new green shirt for me. I wore it and then for some reason I wore a red shirt at Mansfield. We won and ended our losing run, so I'll probably stick with this one.

Has the training at Deepdale been much different than it was at Cambridge?

Not really, it's more or less the same, though maybe not quite as intense. The style of play isn't quite as rigid either.

What are your memories of playing against Manchester United in the F.A. Cup at Old Trafford last season for Charlton?

I enjoyed the occasion very much. We weren't expected to win, so we just went out to enjoy the day. I thought we might win through, when Peter Schmeichel got sent off, but United just seemed to get stronger after that.

Who is your regular room mate and what annoying habits does he have?

Neil Trebble. He never makes the tea!

Neil Trebble says you walk in your sleep. Is this true and has it ever got you into trouble?

I've only ever sleepwalked a couple of times. When I first came here, I was in digs with Neil. I had my own room with a double bed and a small bed in the corner. One night someone came to stay and had Neil's room, so he shared my room. He had the double bed, as he's so tall and I moved to the small one. During the night I sleepwalked to the bathroom and when I came back, because I was on 'automatic pilot', I got back in the double bed! That's why I got the mickey taken!

What has been the most memorable moment of your career so far?

Probably the two promotions with Cambridge - it would have been three if we hadn't lost to Leicester in the Play Offs. I've also played in three F.A. Cup quarter finals, two with Cambridge and one with Charlton.

And the most depressing moment?

When I was at Fulham, Liverpool put ten goals past me at Anfield. Being relegated at Cambridge was a low point too.

Who do you rate as best ever keeper, past or present?

I was too young to see Gordon Banks, but I saw Pat Jennings playing at his peak for Spurs, and I'd say he's probably the best goalkeeper I've seen.

Is there any truth in the old saying that you need to be a bit mad to be a goalie?

Probably. I've never seen a sane goalie yet. They are normally dressing room characters - either very loud or complete lunatics.

What were your main reasons for signing for Preston?

Basically because I was asked. A couple of other clubs were talking to me but Preston came up with a firm offer. Also, I'd played under John Beck before and knew what to expect (and I still signed!). At Cambridge, we achieved a lot of success with limited resources. It was frustrating because when we were near the top of the first division, we still only got crowds of six or seven thousand, because Cambridge isn't a traditional football town like Preston is, so I think a lot can be achieved here.

Which North End player would you least like to be stuck in a lift with and why?

I could stitch a few up here, but I'd say Ian Bryson, because he is the biggest moaner I've ever met!

Were you always a goalkeeper and can you play anywhere else?

I've more or less always been a keeper, but I wasn't bad on the pitch when I was a kid. Looking back on the stupidity of it, I always used to volunteer to go in goal when I was at school. I think it was probably because I was lazy and there was less running to do.

How did West Ham United spot you?

I played for my local Borough and County teams and a West Ham scout saw me play for the County. I signed apprentice forms straight from school.

Despite your experience, do you ever get nervous before a game?

In a way, yes. You know that things aren't right when you have no adrenalin rush before a game - it usually means you aren't properly motivated and don't play well.

What goes through your mind when you're about to face a penalty and what is your success rate over the years?

I don't feel any pressure as such, because goalkeepers aren't really expected to save penalties and it's a bonus if they do. Normally, the opponents will have been watched and you will be filled in on which way the ball will go. It's just a case of remembering that, or using your judgement to decide otherwise. I'd say I have an average success rate - I'd like to have as good a record as Paul Cooper did at Ipswich - he was outstanding.

Finally John, is there anything you'd like to say to the fans?

I know it's been a really frustrating time for everyone, but I honestly don't think we're far off being good enough. Please stick with us, because I'm sure we'll get it right.

BYGONE DAYS

with Mike Payne

Five years ago yesterday North End went down 3-1 away to Chester City. In a poor performance Steve Harper scored our goal but Colin Woodthorpe, Barry Butler and Brian Croft put the home side in control. Chesterfield, meanwhile were winning their home match on the same day against Maidstone the same score 3-1. Bryn Gunn with a penalty and Tony Brien with two scoring their goals.

It was February the 2nd 1985 when the corresponding fixtures were played ten years ago. Again Preston lost, this time beaten 2-1 here at Plymouth Argyle. John Kelly had given us a first half lead but two goals by Clive Goodyear and Kevin Hodges turned the result around. Chesterfield lost on the same day at home to Bury by the single goal Wayne Entwistle scored.

Going back twenty years to the 1st February 1975 we find that Preston managed a 1-1 draw at Southend. A mistake by Alex Spark set up a chance for Stuart Brace to give Southend a tenth minute lead but in the 28th minute Bobby Charlton floated over a corner and Mel Holden headed home the equaliser. In a hard working display the visitors held on deservedly for their point as it was North End who came closest to scoring a winner. A much remembered prolific goalscorer named Ernie Moss was the Chesterfield hero on the same day. He scored the only goal in the 1-0 win over Port Vale at the Recreation Ground.

Ian Rigby with

NORTH END ON TOUR

Preston North End concluded their short visit to Canada on 12th June 1929 by taking on a Montrèal eleven selected from the National League, at Alexander Park, Montrèal, Quebec.

The matchball arrived at the ground in quite unusual circumstances. At precisely 6.45pm an aeroplane from the Canadian Aero Corporation skimmed over the grandstand roof and the matchball was dropped from it onto the football field!

Montrèal, playing in green and red won the toss and elected to play with the breeze. They were soon given an early sample of what to expect from the visitors as young George Bargh hit the crossbar and saw left-back Duguid clear off the goal line. Harrison, twice and Hair both went close for Preston before Russell claimed the games first goal after 15 minutes.

BOBBY CRAWFORD
PNE captain & goalscorer

Montrèal made a few breakaways but below par finishing coupled with good North End defending from Frank Ward and Jasper Kerr kept them at bay. Towards half-time Preston scored a second goal when Alex Hair headed home from a pass by Harrison.

Early in the second half Jack Nelson was adjudged to have handled the ball and conceded a penalty but Finlayson failed miserably with his effort. This miss proved costly as North End went 3-0 up when Bobby Crawford shot home from a corner. Within a couple of minutes Montrèal pulled a goal back through Williams and from this time until the end of the game Montrèal has their fair share of the play but they could not penetrate the well marshalled North End defence. Preston were seen at their best in the first period when they gave an excellent exhibition in the art of dribbling. They were reported as having shown a decidedly Scottish touch to their style as their ball control was top class and their headwork particularly effective. Even though they faded towards the end, (probably due to the exclusive travelling made during the tour) they were never in danger of losing the game.

Steve Cowell writes.....

They played for both clubs

Anyone who followed the fortunes of Preston North End in the late 1960's and early 1970's will remember Ricky Heppolette. He is probably best remembered for three things. a) He was the first Anglo-Indian to play for PNE. b) He was the fittest lad on the books (Alan Ball Shr. once said "wind him up and he will run for ever") c) That goal he scored away at Craven Cottage on May Day 1971 that clinched promotion for Preston and at the same time denied Fulham the Third Division championship. That horizontal headed goal was typical of the man, going in where boots fly, risking injury for the good of the club. Ricky was born in the Bombay Province of India but came to England as a 3 year old and was brought up in Bolton. He was spotted as a schoolboy and signed on as an apprentice professional in September 1964. Ricky made steady progress in the junior teams and soon gained promotion to the Central League side, in the unlikely position of centre-half, already showing that he was better than average in the air despite only being 5'9" tall. The first time Ricky sampled first team football was when he was used as a substitute against Middlesborough in April 1968. A fortnight later he made his full league debut, playing in midfield, against Millwall at Deepdale. Heppy had arrived! His most successful season was in 1970-1971 when North End found themselves in the Third Division for the first time in the Club's history. The distinction of scoring North End's first goal as a Third Division side fell to Heppolette against Halifax Town in the opening game of the season. Promotion became a distinct possibility that year, helped by the fact that every time Heppy scored North End either won or drew their game. The modest dark-skinned, proved to be a valuable asset to Preston North End for when the club was in debt in December 1972 Ricky was reluctantly transferred to Orient for a fee well in excess of £40,000, which was good money over 20 years ago. After four years with Orient he then went on to play for Crystal Palace, Chesterfield (todays opponents) and Peterborough United. Ricky then spent two years in Hong Kong, coaching and playing for Eastern Athletic. The last we heard of Heppy was that he was married, living in the Peterborough area, doing well for himself in his own soft toy business.

Every time you enter Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters Pools or Littlewoods Spot the Ball you are helping the game at all levels. The Football Trust administers funds from the Pools, helping clubs to improve safety and comfort.

The Trust receives some £37 million every year, all of it coming directly or indirectly from Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters Pools and Littlewoods Spot the Ball.

Football also receives £8 million a year for the use of fixtures on coupons and Littlewoods, the game's biggest benefactor, is the first sponsor of the FA Cup.

Up and down the country, clubs are building new grounds, stands, seating and roofing. All depend on the support of the Football Trust and on the success of the football pools.

PAPER TALK

by Brian Ellis
Sports Editor The
Lancashire Evening Post

I can feel another ban coming on ... this time from Torquay United. And as usual, Ellis will be persona non grata because he had the affrontary to be completely honest.

I haven't received the official "not welcome" notice. But it will come - and when it does it's going on the wall of my study at home along with all the others.

I wonder it there's a 92 Club for media people who have been kicked out of every ground in the country.

Perhaps I should start one.

The cause of this latest rumpus has been my reporting of North End's trip down to Devon on January 2. You know, the stuff about Paul Raynor being left behind because of fears for his safety both on and off the field.

They don't like my assertion that the game had grudge match status on the English Riviera since THAT incident with Darren 'Bruno' Moore back in May which probably cost them Wembley and maybe even promotion.

References to their "seven months of seething and sulking" appear to have struck a nerve. So too has my graphic description of the atmosphere at Plainmoor that afternoon - okay I admit I get a bit carried away at times. But, journalistic licences or not, there is no getting away from the fact that it was all true.

The main worry, it would seem, is that Torquay have still to come to here in the league this season. They don't want the daft heads lying in wait for them when they do. And neither do I. Yet isn't it taking the whole thing a bit far - perhaps even verging on paranoia - to send off the Ellis cuttins to the Football League and the FA to see if they can do anything about this dreadful man?

Having been banned from a few clubs in my time - although, if it happens, this will be my first this season (am I going soft in my old age?) - I have been able to identify a common denominator in them all.

The people who run football clubs are so used to getting only 'friendly' coverage from the local media that they almost have a coronary when someone takes even a gentle swipe.

Yes, they're like that here at Preston as well. And, because of it, I've been deemed an undesirable at Deepdale on more than one occasion - with some I'll probably never be anything else.

It's a tough old job trying to walk the tightrope every day, expected by the club to print only the good stuff while, at the same time, keeping your credibility with the fans who buy the paper.

Perhaps I'll lift the lid on soccer treason another day in this column and let you read just what can happen if, like me, you have an awful habit of committing it.

As far as Torquay are concerned, it would appear their relationship with the local media is pretty well plain sailing. It is only when pirates like Ellis jump aboard and rock the boat that they suddenly see the press as nature really intended.

North End visited the new Banana Truss style Alfred McAlpine Stadium for the first time, a magnificent structure even though one end has still to be completed. It is a credit to Huddersfield. Preston fielded a very experienced side with all the eleven players that started the match having played in the League side. Both teams were happy to play good open attacking football in keeping with the impressive surroundings. There was a sprinkling of Preston fans amongst the small crowd as both sides created chances, for North End. Emerson, Atkinson and Ainsworth all has efforts on goal, Trebble hit a wicked swerving shot from out on the right wing which was heading for the far top corner until keeper O'Connor, somehow twisting his body in mid-air, managed to make an outstanding save.

The game was fairly even and the home side were mounting some speedy attacks themselves., Barry Richardson being kept busy but he could not prevent Huddersfield taking the lead when Preston failed to clear their lines Rodney Rowe blasted one in from the edge of the box.

It was mixed fortunes for North End in the in the second half especially for Mike Conroy. Ainsworth was brought down in the box, the referee pointed to the spot and up stepped Conroy to find the bottom left hand corner of the net to equalise. The Scottish striker had a golden chance to notch his second penalty goal of the game when a hand ball decision went against 'The Terriers' he attempted to put his spot kick in the same place but this time O'Connor saved. Town were fortunate on another occasion when Ainsworth was sent sprawling again in the penalty area but this time the referee did not want to know. We were a shade disappointed that maximum points were not heading towards Deepdale but on reflection a draw was probably a fair result. Stuart Hicks had been a tower of strength marshalling the defence with great aplomb, and both wide men, Ainsworth and Atkinson did themselves no harm at all as they fight for their first team places again.

PNE YOUTH

by John Draper

Since the last notes were written for the programme v Mansfield Town (21/1/95), an announcement was made by Preston North End that they have appointed Youth Team coach Chris Sulley as their new Youth Team Development Officer. A job he has been doing in all but true title since Sam Allardyce left us to become manager of Blackpool F.C. during the 1994 close season. Chris aged 35 will now have overall responsibility for all schoolboys and youths from the age of 10 to 18 years old within the club - well done Chris!

But as in life good news equates with bad, in this instance the departure from the club of Gavin Nebbling who has been assisting Chris. Gavin was offered the position of assistant - Youth Development Officer, but tinged with sadness he had to turn down the offer, as due to family reasons he is returning to London. As a bystander looking inwards at our clubs youth organisation, I have noticed that they both seem to get on well together and made a good partnership getting the best out of our youths - especially the first year YTS. Lads, some of whom are forcing their way into the reserve side after only about 6 months of their two year training course - all credit for this is due to Chris and Gavin Guidance - so I am sure you the reader through these notes will join me in wishing both of them all the best for the future in football-albeit in different parts of the country.

Welcome - David Hamilton

The appointment was announced on Wednesday 25th of January of a new assistant to Chris. David Hamilton joins the staff from Accrington Stanley where he was a player coach, after a successful career as a professional footballer at Sunderland, Blackburn, Cardiff, Wigan, Chester and Burnley - he has also a vast experience in non-league locally where he played for Lancaster City Barrow and Chorley before moving to The Crown Ground at Accrington.

David, born in South Shields on the 7th November 1960, played for England Youths in 1979. His chance of regular first team football came when he moved to Blackburn in January 1981 - so with his experience to pass on to our youngsters and schoolboys, I am sure this is another 'Step-up' for our club in the quest to bring top class footballers through for our 'Proud Preston' team - Good Luck David

A Lack-Lustre Display

'Less said the better' about this game, sums up this sluggish performance against a Wigan Youth side languishing in the lower half of League - one spectator summed it up with the comment - 'We never got out of first gear - in fact you could say 'We had stalled for the first five mins', by which time the Wiganers had gone tow goals up. Disaster and disbelieve came over the players and spectators alike, when from the kick-off. The ball was played backwards instead of sideways and forward - the ball ended up being played both back to David Lucas in the goals - the back pass due to Heavy Pitch Conditions feel short of him allowing a visitors forward access to the ball. I think his first shot rebounded off David's body for a 'second bite at the cherry' -which he gratefully accepted and 'gobbled up'! - This goal was scored within half-a-minute from the kick-off. In fact one of the linesman timed it at 17 seconds - talk about being caught cold! The situation did not improve either, another goal being conceded on 5 mins.

After this setback the North End lads seem to settle down into their usual pattern of play, having a goal disallowed on 24 minutes for a foul on the keeper - they were eventually rewarded for their effort pulling a goal back (35th min). John Calligan tried to head the ball in a goalmouth Melee, the ball falling Tony Lawler. In a scramble he shot it into the net.

As in the past when chasing the game, through endeavour and character North End have pulled the game round - not today! No quick Equaliser - In fact it was the visitors who scored and within 2 minutes of the second half kick-off. Not taking heed of the first goal conceded. Another back pass stuck in the mud leaving David Lucas 'Ship-wrecked' again allowing Wigan's No 6 Hogg to chip the ball over the advancing keeper into the net. Harsh words were exchanged between the defence, but to really put a downer on the game North End missed an 85th minute penalty - Captain Chris Borwick shooting weak and wide of the far post.

This was certainly a game everybody connected with North End Youths will want to forget in a hurry - Let us hope it is only a "Blip" in an otherwise outstanding season of Youth football.

North End Team
Lucas: Stewart, Sharp, McKenna, Hayton, Corcoran, Ainsworth, Borwick (capt) Calligan, Potts, Lawler
Subs: Harrison and Mumberson - Not used

The fixture following this game at home to Oldham (Sat 21st January) was called off the previous day due to a waterlogged pitch.

Thanks for reading about and supporting our Youth Team.

ENDSLEIGH INSURANCE
LEAGUE DIVISION THREE PRESTON NORTH END
v
CARLISLE UNITED
KICK OFF 3.00pm

In form division leaders Carlisle come to Deepdale with an impressive away record. Having lost only one league game all season, away at Northampton last September, they will be confident of repeating last season's 3-0 victory. United's defence is marshalled by the mobile Dean Walling and the experienced former Evertonian Derek Mountfield. In midfield the flair of Rod Thomas is tempered with the probing craft of the much travelled David Currie. Whilst up front former North End transfer target David Reeves will always pose a threat.

FANSCENE

I S A

Well it's Sunday afternoon and I've just been watching a very uninteresting Sunderland v Tottenham match on the box. (Though that is not what the final score suggested!) It by no means makes up for the fact that North End had no match yesterday. This is not the first time this season that come Saturday we have been left twiddling our thumbs and scouring the fixture list for some sort of credible alternative. My second choice West Bromwich Albion were not even playing! (Well someone has got to keep an eye on our ex Preston players - especially the better looking ones!) So once again this season I have to succumb to a Saturday afternoon without a match. It's bad enough when we get knocked out of the cup, but when the match is rained off it makes me irate.

After reading Brian Ellis's report in Saturday's Evening Post it got me wondering, why should the supporters not get some form of compensation when games are called off and enough advance warning is given? Earlier this season it was Wigan. o.k. Wigan is not far away but two seasons ago many of us made the long trip to Swansea, only to be informed by the local radio station, just within sight of the ground that the match had been postponed. When the match was replayed some weeks later on a Tuesday evening it wouldn't have hurt Swansea to let the few supporters who had made that journey twice into the ground for free. All right I can hear you saying how on earth could clubs monitor this. Well if away fans showed up at a ground when the match had been cancelled they could be issued with a voucher entitling them to free admission on their return visit, after all many fans find it difficult to make the return journey to view a mid week match.

Arrangements for away fans for the Carlisle match.

We would like all Preston North End fans to know that this is not a pre-cursor by the Club for what is going to happen at the start of next season when the West Stand is demolished. The club is looking at many alternatives of where away supporters may be housed. A lot of this will also depend on which division we are in. Everyone is hoping that we will be in the second division and that the problem of housing away supporters will be a major one (In view of the thousands of supporters who will wish to descend upon Deepdale!). Any way we can tell you that nothing has been decided, I for one hope that so many people will wish to come and watch North End that there will only be a small amount of space left over for the away fans. Watch this column for further news - we will avail you of the details as soon as the club have made their intentions known.

Talking of space I have a question to pose to you all - why when I look at the statistical tables in my Sunday newspaper does Carlisle head the list for crowds at a third division match. Let's put North End back on top by encouraging everyone to come to our home fixture against Carlisle. We had a bumper crowed against our arch rivals from the seaside - well let's all bring our mums, dads, aunts, uncles, children - in fact anyone, where are all those thousands who travelled to Wembley with us - let's be the catalyst in bringing them back to Deepdale and getting behind the team. The lads assure me that the vocal supports from the fans makes a great deal of difference to them. They feel really boosted when they can hear us getting behind them.

Reserve Football at Deepdale

A date for your diary FEBRUARY 22nd - a Wednesday evening.
For all of you who have never been to reserve match then this is the one! The I.S.A. together with the O.S.C. are mounting a campaign to get as many people to Deepdale on that night as possible. Who are we playing? I can hear you all asking. Will United be here with Cantona stuck in the reserve team? No we will be playing (beating - whoops!) Blackpool on that evening and it is the fans' ambition to get a larger crowd at a reserve match than Blackpool can manage to obtain for their home first team fixtures. Let's face it, it shouldn't be too hard, given their average gate this season! So get that date fixed in your diary. If the crowd is large enough we have the club's assurance that all sections of the ground will be open and it will be good to have something to party about. Let's treat it as a trial run for the superb party that we will hold after the Scunthorpe match on May 6th.

Another date for your diary!

The brewery trip has been fixed for Wednesday 19th April - call in at the portakabin for further details.
